St. Monica's - Food for our Community

More than ever we need to feed the community. They are the homeless, the vulnerable, the broken, maybe our own neighbors.

St. Monica's Food Pantry was unable to receive people since March due to COVID but we are still striving to make this Christmas a feast of food to feed and to fill the hungry.

We are asking if you could please bring non-perishable food (only) and place it at the entrance area in the Church. We are so grateful to everyone for your heartfelt kindness. Thank you!

Montreal Directed Retreats

(Pray with Scripture online)

Are you in need of some quiet time with God for meditation and reflection? Montreal Directed Retreats offers us the opportunity to do so each day from 10:30 am -11:15am. You can also join in any day or every day. To find out more information click on the link below:

An Online Retreat Day for the Italian Community and Friends

Called to Journey: Discovering our Sacred Stories, Facilitated by Vita Lewis & Dina Amicone

Music by Giuseppe Palmisano

As a community, our stories are very much rooted in journey. Join us for this day of retreat where we will explore, as daughters and sons of immigrants, the impact of that journey on our lives, and discern our response to God's ongoing invitation. This retreat day will offer Ignatian prayer, live music, conversation in small groups and Mass, celebrated by Father Sylvester Tan, SJ.

Note: Retreat will be guided in English. Retreatants may express themselves in English, French or Italian. Date: Friday, December 11, 2020 – Time: 9:30am to 4:00pm – Meeting Space: Zoom.

To register, please contact Dina Amicone at dinaamicone64@gmail.com or Vita Lewis at vitalewis@gmail.com suggested offering: $25.
