ST. MONICA’S FOOD PANTRY

St. Monica’s Food Pantry once again is so grateful for the generous monetary and food contributions which made for a huge success in helping our Community this season. The urgency has been great since this endless pandemic and brought much hope to those who are in extreme need. We thank everyone for your generosity and would like to acknowledge the following churches and other organizations that helped with their time and efforts:

St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish, NDG, St. Thomas à Beckett Parish, Pierrefonds, St. Willibrord Parish, Verdun and the kindness and generosity of Villa Maria, the West End Day Care Center, the West End Quilters Guild, CDS Food Inc., and special thanks to Super C and our heartfelt thanks to All who brought and continue to bring their donations. We have all been truly blessed!

PARISH COUNCIL

The Native Friendship Centre expresses their gratitude to St. Monica’s Parish and all the volunteers for the over 300 sandwiches and the dozens of cookies that were made and delivered to them. This helped so many of the homeless Indigenous People and brought them much joy.
