COURAGEOUS CATHOLICS

It takes courage to live as an authentic Catholic today. It takes courage because much of what our culture celebrates and promotes is in opposition to the Church's teachings. Our Lord calls us to be lights unto the world, but how do we do this amidst a hostile culture? How do we influence the culture instead of letting it continue to influence us?

Following the survey results presented in December, a handful of parishioners formed a new group call the Courageous Catholics to tackle these questions.

The first topic this group would like to address is abortion.

Please join us the weekend of March 2nd and 3rd after mass for a brief 15-minute presentation on this topic. Please note that this presentation is not suitable for children.
