holy, Holy, The Holy One: The human journey to Wholeness

*This year in his film series, theologian, film scholar, and Associate Pastor of St. Monica's Parish, Fr. Lloyd Baugh, S.J. looks at films that consider how God, The Holy One, YHWH and the deities of Buddhism, invite their believers to risk undertaking the wonderful and mysterious journey towards the holiness which is wholeness.*

Decalogue Eight

Directed by: Krzysztof Kieslowski
Poland, 1988 - Polish with English subtitles

The film is set in Warsaw during the martial-law regime of Jaruzelski, but it reaches back 45 years to the Nazi occupation of the city, where we unknowingly witness an unspeakable sin/crime. In the present time of the film, the two protagonists of that terrible event – an aged professor of ethics, and a middle-aged writer and translator – meet, face each other in a powerful and painful confrontation, which at first seems to offer no hope. But grace visits the encounter of the two women, compassion brings them together: a powerful moral and spiritual victory is won.
