COME AND SEE: IKONS OF LOVE IN CONTEMPORARY MOVIES

This year, theologian, film scholar, and Associate Pastor of St. Monica's Parish, Fr. Lloyd Baugh, S.J.'s film series looks at movies that courageously examine the multi-faceted experience of Love.

Join him for this month's film ...

Three Colors Blue

Starring: Juliette Binoche, Zbigniew Zamachowski, and Julie Delpy

The first part of Kieslowski's trilogy on France's national motto: Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity, "Blue" is the story of Julie who loses her husband, an acclaimed composer, and her young daughter in a car accident. The film's theme of liberty is manifested in Julie's attempt to start life anew, free of personal commitments, belongings, grief or love. She intends to numb herself by withdrawing from the world and living completely independently and in solitude in Paris. Despite her intentions, the reality created by the people who need and care about her, a surprising discovery, and the music around which the film revolves, heal Julie and draw her back to the land of the living and the loving.
