"THE GREATEST OF THESE IS LOVE"

This year in his film series, theologian, film scholar, and Associate Pastor of St. Monica's Parish, Fr. Lloyd Baugh, S.J., proudly presents the ten short films of Krzysztof Kieslowski's Decalogue. Loosely inspired by the Mosaic "Ten Commandments", the films are rigorously consistent in their sharp focus on the pre-eminence of the commandment to love in the New Testament. "The entire law is fulfilled in this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Decalogue Three

Respect The Day Of The Lord

On Christmas Eve, a family gathers at the decorated tree and drinks a toast, but there is tension in the air. Later they go to Church. A solitary woman drives aimlessly through the deserted streets, in a desperate search of a human contact on this most holy night. A former lover of the man, she lures him away from his family under false pretenses, and the man, suspecting her duplicity, goes along with it: together they undertake a violent and perilous "dark night of the soul." At dawn, the woman confesses her ruse, the man admits his awareness, and they part, almost amicably. Returning to his wife, the man insists will be faithful to her; but the woman turns away from him. Have they, all three, somehow respected the holiness of the feast?
